

IRA Offers To Extend Cease-Fire

LONDON (AP) — The Irish Republican Army has offered to prolong its cease-fire in Northern Ireland indefinitely if Protestant guerrilla groups will negotiate with it, London newspapers reported today.

The press reports, quoting sources in Dublin, said the British government is studying the IRA proposal. There was no official confirmation of the reports.

The reports said the proposal did not include the IRA's long-standing demand for a British promise to pull out of Northern Ireland ultimately. Instead it calls on the British government to give its public blessing to direct peace negotiations between leaders of the Roman Catholic and Protestant extremist organizations, the papers reported.

There was no immediate reaction from the militants who now dominate the Protestants in Northern Ireland. But they have repeatedly warned against concessions to the IRA since the Catholic guerrillas proclaimed a Christmas cease-fire on Dec. 23 and extended it until Jan. 16.

"Those people who think this cease-fire means it is all over are living in a fool's paradise," one Protestant spokesman said Sunday. "Only when the IRA is crushed will there be lasting peace."

The IRA's aims in the past have always included amnesty for its members, the return of British troops in Northern Ireland to their barracks and a British declaration of intent to withdraw eventually from the disputed province.

The Daily Telegraph said David O'Connell has resigned as chief of staff of the IRA's Provisional wing "so that he can mastermind political negotiations with the British government." O'Connell is a vice president of the IRA's political arm, Sinn Fein, which is legal in Britain and both parts of Ireland.

The people of Northern Ireland have now enjoyed their longest period of peace since fighting between Catholics and Protestants began five and half years ago. England, too, has been free from the bombing campaign that brought terror to its streets in the past two years.

Urge Hike In Jobless Fund Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A $30 million hike in employers' contributions to the state unemployment compensation fund has been proposed by the Ohio AFL-CIO.

The suggestion was prompted by an Ohio State University study that indicated the state's Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund could be depleted in a decade unless additional funding were arranged.

Warren J. Smith, AFL-CIO secretary-treasurer, said the taxable wage base should be raised from $4,200 annually to $6,164 to protect about two-thirds of the average yearly pay of 3.9 million Ohioans.

The boost would send the fund to about $1.2 billion, about $30 million of which labor feels management should pay in.

The Ohio State study noted that provisions of state unemployment compensation statutes would raise benefits over the next decade, and the report said the fund could drop dangerously low without an increase in employer contributions.

"The ability of the fund to recover is diminished by employers paying taxes on a fewer number of employees" when jobless rates run high for an extended period, noted William Barnes, director of the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services. Barnes said he favored a review of the fund's status.

William Costello, director of government affairs for the Ohio Manufacturers Association, said the association would take a close look at whatever the AFL-CIO proposed.

CONFRONTATION—Miami, Fla., policeman Vernon Hetherington and robbery victim Harry Clark (running at right) fire on a car carrying two robbery suspects as the car speeds toward Hetherington. Hetherington dodged the auto and apprehended the suspects as the car screeched to a halt on the sidewalk. Both suspects were slightly wounded and charged with armed robbery. Miami News photographer Michael O'Brien, who was doing a feature on the patrolman at the time of the incident, photographed the entire scene.

Demos In Control In Ohio Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Democrats will have total control for the first time in 14 years today when the curtain lifts on the 111th General Assembly.

Not since the days of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle have Democrats controlled both houses of the legislature. That reign ended in 1960.

The Ohio Senate is to convene at 1:30 p.m. The House will go into session at 2 p.m.

For one week, Democrats will control the governor's office as well as the legislature. Gov.-elect James A. Rhodes, a Republican, will take the oath of office a week from today.

In that week, Democrats will attempt to shove through a package of partisan legislation including a measure redrawing congressional boundaries.

Republicans, outnumbered greatly in both houses, pin their hopes on outgoing Lt. Gov. John W. Brown to stop the partisan package from becoming law.

Democrats are aware of the plan to use Brown as the GOP defensive block and insiders said Democrats have a plan of their own to curb the strategy.

Under the constitution, Brown must sign and forward to the governor for his signature all legislation after he determines that "procedural requirements for passage have been met."

Republicans are banking their entire defense on that phrase.

Their game plan, simply put, is this: Brown studies the bills until midnight Sunday, with Rhodes taking the oath of office a few seconds after midnight.

By that time, Richard Celeste will replace Brown as lieutenant governor but Rhodes will be the state's chief executive. He could veto the package.

"We're aware of what they plan,"

Weather

Cloudy with chance of showers today, high, mid 40s. Partly cloudy tonight, low, low 30s. Cloudy and warmer with rain possible, high, upper 40s. Probability of precipitation, 30 per cent today, 10 per cent tonight and 40 per cent tomorrow. Temperatures Sunday were: high, 44; low, 31.

said House Speaker Vernal G. Riffe Jr., D-99 New Boston, "and we have some plans of our own."

One of them, another Democrat said, is a court order forcing Brown to sign any Democratic bills, specifically redistricting.

About three dozen bills have been turned into the Senate and House clerk's office, awaiting introduction Monday. The House plans a Monday night session, mainly for bill introduction.

10 Sailors Overcome By Smoke

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Ten Navy enlisted men who were overcome by smoke from a fire aboard a minesweeper were reported in satisfactory condition today after being taken back to land by helicopters.

Three Navy helicopters and two from the Coast Guard were used to take the men from the Enhance to the Balboa Naval Medical Center here.

The 177-foot Enhance was on a weekend training mission 43 miles south of San Diego when the blaze erupted in the main engine room Sunday morning. Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

The vessel was towed back to port by a Navy tugboat.

Three of the injured men were on weekend reserve duty. They were identified as Electricians Mate William C. Shade of Dayton, Ohio; Operational Specialist 2.C. George Hulings of Cottonwood, Ariz.; and Seaman Clinton J. Hantz of Westlake, Calif.

The active duty men were Electricians Mate 2.C. Allen P. Lowery of Chula Vista, Calif.; CPO Leon C. Mueller of Hawaiian Gardens, Calif.; Fireman Daniel J. Flemming of Correctville, Iowa; Electricians Mate 3.C. Sam Gretter of Harbor, Iowa; Seaman Appren. Rocky A. Bible of Carson, Calif.; Electricians Mate 2.C. Joseph Lipka of San Diego; and Hull Technician Donny Cummings of San Diego.

"The ship steered to the left of the navigation span and hit the bridge on the third pylon from the eastern shore," said Maurice Allan, who saw the accident from his home. "The ship went straight down after the bridge collapsed on top of it after wavering for about 60 seconds."

Allan's son, Gordon, 20, said he heard "a big bang and saw a car heading into town swerve across the bridge. It hit an oncoming car and both fell into the river."

One driver, Murray Ling, said he stopped his car three feet from the

CIA Probe Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders say their planned investigations into the CIA's alleged domestic intelligence work will proceed even though President Ford has appointed an eight-man commission to probe the spy agency.

Ford named Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller to head the commission Sunday which was created to "determine whether the CIA has exceeded its statutory authority." The agency, which is limited by law to foreign intelligence, allegedly has spied on Americans in the United States.

The panel is to report in 90 days. White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said the report would be sent to Congress and released to the public.

The other commissioners appointed by Ford were former California Gov. Ronald Reagan, retired Army Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, former Solicitor General Erwin N. Griswold, AFL-CIO Secretary-Treasurer Joseph Lane Kirkland, retired University of Virginia President Edgar F. Shannon, former Commerce Secretary John T. Connor and former Treasury Secretary C. Douglas Dillon.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott praised the commission members as "distinguished men without personal axes to grind" and as "men of great national reputation."

But Scott said it was necessary for the congressional inquiries to go ahead. CIA investigations previously were announced by Rep. Lucien N. Nedzi, D-Mich., chairman of the House CIA oversight committee; Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate CIA oversight panel; and Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., incoming chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Nedzi, vowing to continue his panel's probe, welcomed the appointment of the presidential commission and said he would appreciate any insights the commission may offer "into the problem of reconciling a secret agency with an open society."

The House CIA subcommittee will meet next week to map its investigation. Nedzi said he will urge that the panel's work be done in public.

Neither Stennis nor Sparkman was immediately available for comment.

Sen. Howard H. Baker, R-Tenn., who conducted his own personal inquiry into the CIA's links with the Watergate scandal, commended Ford for creating the commission. Baker added that the commission did not reduce the need for independent congressional action.

The make-up of the commission came under some criticism. One lawmaker, who asked not to be identified, said the close personal relationship between Rockefeller and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger made it a "self investigation."

Kissinger also serves as head of the National Security Council, which is directly responsible for the CIA. Kissinger is known to have urged Ford to create such a commission.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., said

STATE Representative Myrl Shoemaker called the Herald today to report that Wednesday morning $35,000 will be released by the state controlling board for a conceptual study of the proposed Deer Creek State Park lodge and cabins. The firm of Acock, White and Associates will be employed to conduct the study which will include siting the proposed lodge and cabins, recommendation of size and type of construction, the extent of development and preliminary drawings.

GUESS what... Circleville area received only 19 per cent of the possible sunshine for the month of December according to the National Weather Service.

the panel was "very one-sided."

"With the exception of Griswold, members of the panel haven't been very conspicuous for their championship of civil liberties," Proxmire said.

He also said he was concerned about the fact that Rockefeller "has been on the President's foreign intelligence advisory board for five years" and about the close relationship between Kissinger and Rockefeller.

Nessen was asked Sunday whether the Kissinger-Rockefeller friendship and Kissinger's CIA relations constituted a conflict of interest.

"The President didn't think so," Nessen responded.

Lemnitzer, as a former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, also had contacts with the CIA, but Nessen said they were "not in a sense that would hamper his role on the commission."

In establishing the commission, Ford restricted its investigation to "CIA activities within the United States."

He praised the agency for its "many successes" in intelligence and counterintelligence, but declared: "It is essential in this Republic that we meet our security requirements and at the same time avoid impairing our democratic institutions and fundamental freedoms."

Ford also said he was writing to department and agency heads responsible for the government's intelligence activities "emphasizing that they are at all times to conduct their activities within the scope of their respective statutory authorities."

Ford's investigative commission will swing into action this week, holding an organizational meeting and hiring staff, White House aides said.

Indochina Fight Reaches Saigon And Phnom Penh

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Communist forces shelled the outskirts of Saigon and Phnom Penh today as the besieged garrison at Phuoc Binh City held out for the fifth day. The shelling on the western edge of Saigon was the closest rocket attack to the South Vietnamese capital since before the signing of the ceasefire agreement nearly two years ago.

The Viet Cong fired a dozen 100-pound rockets shortly after midnight Sunday at the Phu Lam international communications center two miles west of the city limits, the South Vietnamese military command reported.

Half of the rockets landed in a village, killing a family of four, wounding eight others and destroying more than 20 homes. The rest of the rockets landed in rice paddies and did no damage.

In Cambodia, military officials reported that Khmer Rouge insurgents fired 43 rockets at the Phnom Penh airport three miles west of the city before dawn. Officials said the rockets landed in a grassy field around the runway and in an army transportation camp and did only minor damage.

The Saigon command said North Vietnamese tanks and infantrymen advanced behind a 1,000-round mortar barrage for their fifth day of attacks on Phuoc Binh City. But radio communications with the provincial capital 75 miles north of Saigon were still intact, the command reported.

It said South Vietnamese fighter-bombers attacked a column of 10 North Vietnamese medium tanks half a mile from the Phuoc Binh town hall and destroyed four of them. This raised to 20 the number of tanks claimed by the South Vietnamese since the attack on the city began.

Phuoc Binh is the last remaining government foothold in Phuoc Long province, on the Cambodian border.

The Communist campaign in Phuoc Long province is part of an offensive that began a month ago. Military analysts says its purpose is to expand the Communists' territorial control deeper southward into the provinces north and east of Saigon in hopes of gaining political concessions from President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Government Auctions Gold With Few Expected Buyers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is auctioning two million ounces of gold to big money buyers in an attempt to prevent foreign gold from pouring into the United States.

The gold being auctioned today is worth around $350 million at the $175-an-ounce price that prevailed on most markets late last week. Because the minimum quantity sold to an individual is 400 ounces, the minimum bid must be around $70,000 if the $175 an ounce price holds up.

The auction was planned to avoid a surge in imported gold once it became legal on Dec. 31 for American citizens to own gold for the first time since the Depression. A rush of imported gold would have weakened the U.S. balance of payments situation.

Anticipation that U.S. citizens would eagerly acquire the precious metal sent gold prices upward to around $200 an ounce late last month. However, the ho-hum response from the American public last week sent the price down to the $175 level.

Foreign governments and their agents were barred from participating in the auction.

The government reserved the right to reject any bids it considered too low, but a Treasury Department official said before the auction that the government was prepared to be liberal in deciding what would be a reasonable price.

The auction was not the first sale of gold from U.S. stocks. The government had sold small amounts periodically to jewelers and other industrial users in the late 1960s before movements toward world monetary reform led to suspension of the practice.

Although gold specialists have said the latest auction served to depress gold prices, Treasury officials have stressed the auction's role in protecting the U.S. trade balance.

The nation is already running a deficit in excess of $2 billion in its trade accounts this year. And since U.S. gold exports were expected to total eight million ounces last year with only industrial purchases permitted, officials were eager to head off any aggravation of the situation.

American Killed, Other Said Missing

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — One U.S. State Department man is missing aboard an Air America plane that disappeared on a flight over the central part of South Vietnam, and another was killed in an explosion at his residence on the central coast.

The man killed in the explosion was identified as William E. Bennett, 36, of Springfield, Va. The missing man was identified as James A. Rawlings, 38, of Hyattsville, Md.

Bennett was a political reporting officer for the U.S. Embassy and was stationed at Tuy Hoa, on the central coast. The Embassy said he was killed on Saturday in an explosion in the storage room of his residence.

An embassy spokesman said the cause of the explosion is being investigated. He said Bennett is survived by his widow and three children in the United States.

Air America said Rawlings was aboard a C123 cargo plane that disappeared in bad weather last Friday on a 30-minute flight from Dalat, on the mountain resort, to Nha Trang, on the central coast. Rawling was a supply officer with the U.S. Consulate at Nha Trang.

Air America, the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency airline, said the plane was carrying furniture and was leased from China Airlines. Also aboard were three Chinese crewmen, four Vietnamese employees of the U.S. Consulate at Nha Trang and a Filipino contractor.

Ship Hits Bridge; 10 Persons Die

HOBART, Tasmania (AP) — Officials believe at least 10 people were killed when a British ore freighter rammed the Tasman bridge Sunday night and brought down a 240-foot section of the span that took the 11,200-ton ship to the bottom.

The bodies of five of the ship's 42 crewmen were recovered, and two other crewmen were missing. But police said they believed two and possibly three cars plunged from the bridge into the Derwent River 150 feet below. They had no idea how many persons were in the cars.

The ship, the Lake Illawarra, stayed afloat for about 10 minutes, and the other 35 crewmen got off alive. Three were hospitalized. The survivors included the ship's captain and the chief engineer.

The four-lane, mile-long bridge connected the business district of Hobart, on the west bank of the river, to residential areas on the east side. The city is the capital and largest city of Tasmania, the Australian island state 150 miles south of the mainland.

The accident occurred about 9 p.m. during a light rain, officials said.

brink as the road disappeared in front of him.

"I got out and started waving, but another car came fast and went straight through into space," he said.

He said an elderly woman driver rammed into the back of his car and "knocked it over the brink."

It was the second worst bridge disaster in Australian history. Thirty-three workers were killed when the Westgate Bridge in Melbourne collapsed in October 1970 before it was completed.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rolled ahead today with a push from the Federal Reserve's half-point reduction in its discount rate.

The opening Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was nearly a point above Friday's close, and gainers took a 10-1 lead over losers on the New York Stock Exchange.

After the markets had closed at the end of last week, the Fed reduced its discount rate from 7½ to 7¼ per cent.

The discount rate—the rate member commercial banks pay on loans from the Fed—nearly always exerts a strong pull on other money rates.

And the move by the central bank was widely seen as a clear step toward a more stimulative credit policy in order to cushion the effects of the recession.

Today's prices included Louisiana-Pacific, up ¼ at 10½; Honeywell, up 7/8 at 22½; Delta Airlines, ahead 1/8 at 29½; and Xerox, up 1/8 at 52½.

On Friday, the Dow Jones industrial average held on for a 2.50-point gain to 634.54 despite some late profit-taking. Advances outpaced declines by about a 3-1 margin in turnover of 15.27 million shares on the NYSE.

Liddy Says Nixon Not Ruthless Enough

WASHINGTON (AP) — Convicted Watergate burglar G. Gordon Liddy says former President Richard M. Nixon did not act ruthlessly enough in coping with the scandal and should have destroyed the tape recordings that eventually drove him from office.

In a televised interview Liddy also characterized former White House counsel John W. Dean III as a "stool pigeon" and former Nixon re-election committee head Jeb Stuart Magruder as "an accomplished, skillful liar."

"I think in all fairness to the man you'd have to put him right up there with Judas Iscariot," Liddy said of Dean, who along with Magruder was a chief prosecution witness in the Watergate cover-up trial.

Liddy said that if he is returned to prison, he would prefer not being sent to the minimum security facility where Dean is held because "I'd rather have an honest bank robber any day in the week" as a cellmate.

Liddy served about 18 months in prison before being released on bond while one of his sentences is appealed. He has been sentenced to 6 years and eight months to 20 years for his role in Watergate, 18 months for contempt of court and 1 to 3 years for his role in the Ellsberg conspiracy case.

Small Town Given Expensive Property

FAYETTE, Iowa (AP) — The town of Fayette, which has fewer than 2,000 residents, has become principal owner of a factory in Illinois, seven shoe stores in California and a bank building in Muskegon, Mich.

The buildings are all part of a multimillion dollar gift to the town by a group of financiers.

Fayette Mayor William Drake says no one really knows exactly what benefits the town eventually will receive from the gift.

However, he says that the town's share of the business buildings is currently worth at least $3 million. The town has an assessed valuation of just under $1.8 million.

The catch to the gift is that right now, virtually all the money received from rental on the buildings is going to pay for construction cost, maintenance, taxes and insurance.

But Drake says that eventually there should be a good dividend to Fayette taxpayers.

The gift results from a New York financier's friendship for Upper Iowa University, which is located at Fayette, and the desire he and five of his financial partners had to dispose of a number of buildings constructed in 1963-64.

The buildings were built by the New York Securities Co., formed by David Liddy said he identifies with U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica, the man who imprisoned him and who has presided in most of the Watergate cases. "I really can't be too critical of Judge Sirica ... He believes that the end justifies the means. He puts that into practice. He does what is necessary," Liddy said in an interview with Mike Wallace for a CBS "60 Minutes" program broadcast Sunday.

He told Wallace that Nixon was "insufficiently ruthless" in dealing with "these domestic difficulties in which he was engaged." Liddy said that when the existence of the White House tapes was disclosed, he would have stated publicly that "they are being destroyed, in fact, they have been destroyed."

Liddy refused in the interview, as he has before, to break his silence on what he knows about Watergate. But he described Watergate as a justified intelligence-gathering operation.

Liddy's wife, who participated in the interview at their suburban Oxon Hill, Md., home, described her husband as a hero for keeping silent on Watergate. She said he was "serving his country just as many of the military men have."

Bolger of Hackensack, N.J., and his partners and now disbanded. Bolger is a financial consultant to Upper Iowa University.

The partners apparently took depreciation allowances on the buildings for income tax purposes between the time they were constructed and this year, and started looking for ways to dispose of them.

Bolger said he convinced his partners that "it would be to everyone's interest to donate them to Fayette."

So local councilmen signed papers setting up a trust to receive the gift. The holdings consist of 62½ per cent of the National Lumbermen's Bank building in Muskegon; the National Can Corp. factory building in Rockford, Ill.; buildings housing seven Kinney shoe stores in several California cities; a building housing a Piggly Wiggly supermarket in San Antonio, Tex., and a San Antonio warehouse building.

City Police Investigate Two Thefts

Circleville Police investigated a breaking and entering at the residence of Debbie Monroe, 23, 1234½ S. Court St., late Friday night.

According to the report taken by Ptl. Ron Thompson, Ms. Monroe had been staying with her father, Paul McFerrin, in Chillicothe.

McFerrin arrived at the Circleville residence to get some items for Ms. Monroe, when he found the front door open.

Entry was gained through a back door by breaking loose a night latch. Nothing was missing at the time of the investigation.

Antiques and money, valued at $134, were taken by thieves from the Bernard Kathe residence, 213 Walnut St., early Sunday morning.

Kathe noted that everything in the house had been bothered.

Ptl. Ron Smith investigated the report.

Agnew, Friend Buying Coal Mines

WASHINGTON (AP) — A business associate of Spiro T. Agnew says the former vice president and he are in the process of acquiring, or are considering acquiring, 16 coal mines, the Washington Post reports.

The newspaper Sunday quoted Walter J. Dilbeck Jr. as saying foreign money was being used to make the coal deals, but "not from the Mideast."

The story also quoted Lester Burns, an attorney who represents Dilbeck and Agnew, as saying he understood that in other deals and negotiations, the two were relying for financing on "Far East, Middle East and Near East oil monies and Japanese industrialists."

Dilbeck was quoted as saying Agnew and he have bought one mine in Oklahoma, plan to close a deal on another in Kentucky, and are considering buying 14 others.

The story was from Henderson, Ky.

Commissioners To OK Annual Operating Budget

Pickaway County Commissioners today were awaiting the final approval of the estimate of anticipated revenue by the Pickaway County auditor's office before approving the annual budget.

Commissioner L. Robert Liston said they hoped to receive the approval in time to pass the budget today. Assuming his post as commissioner today was Donald Strous, elected in the November General Election.

Strous and Liston met with William Stout, chairman of the airport authority, briefly to discuss the recently completed office building at Pickaway Memorial Airport. They also met briefly with county prosecutor Richard Gerhardt and reminded him of the meeting with Perrill Road residents 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at which time the sewer district assessments and easements will be explained to those involved.

Gerhardt was also authorized to draw up a lease for rental of office space in the recently acquired property just south of the Court House. The law firm of Margulis, Gussler, Hall and Hosterman occupies the basement of the building.

The title department of the Pickaway County Clerk of Courts, presently on the second floor of the Crites Building on Franklin Street, will be moved to the first floor of property soon, commissioners noted.

Due to the absence of commissioner Dick T. Tootle, who was not expected to return from a winter vacation until late today, the annual reorganizational meeting of the commissioners is tentatively scheduled next Monday.

A Page Of Opinion

Longhorn Revival

Texas Longhorns, like the American bison, reached a zenith of influence on the American food scene in the latter half of the nineteenth century. By the turn of the twentieth century both had nearly disappeared into extinction.

The parallel continues with the revival of each of these distinctive species. The buffalo long ago became the center of interest of wildlife conservationists because of its rich heritage, but the rebirth of the Texas Longhorn is of more recent vintage.

From fewer than 40 in the 1920s, the Longhorns today number about 7,800. There are indications that relatively small number could become the nucleus of something much larger. A depressed beef market and steadily rising costs of cattle feed are refocusing attention on grazing, and that focus in some instances is leading to the Longhorn.

As one Longhorn rancher described the renewed interest in his breed: "Cattlemen are searching for an animal which can do more for less."

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, January sixth, the sixth day of 1975. There are 359 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

In 1412, the French national heroine, Joan of Arc, was born.

On this date—

In 1540, King Henry the Eighth of England married his fourth wife, Anne of Cleves.

In 1759, George Washington was married to the widow, Martha Dandridge Custis.

In 1838, Samuel F.B. Morse made the first public demonstration of his telegraph, at Morristown, New Jersey.

In 1912, New Mexico became the 47th state.

In 1919, former President Theodore Roosevelt died at his Oyster Bay, New York home.

In 1941, President Franklin Roosevelt defined the American goal of "Four Freedoms" — freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want and freedom from fear.

Ten years ago: A U-S Air Force F-111 demonstrated its ability to fold back its wings during a test flight at Fort Worth, Texas.

Five years ago: White students generally stayed away from desegregated schools in Mississippi as more of the schools opened under Federal court integration orders.

One year ago: Troops, tanks and armored cars guarded London's Heathrow Airport after reports that Arab terrorists planned to shoot down airliners with surface-to-air missiles.

Today's birthdays: Entertainer Danny Thomas is 61 years old. Actress Loretta Young is 62. Pollster Louis Harris is 54.

Thought for today: A bad man is worse when he pretends to be a saint — Francis Bacon, English philosopher and writer, 1561-1626.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I read in a health store that a special cereal and a fish product would help increase the IQ of a student. Is there anything to this?

J.E., Mich.

Dear J.: The brain, like all other organs of the body, flourishes and grows with good nutrition.

A well-balanced diet that supplies protein, fat, carbohydrate, minerals and vitamins is essential for normal development.

There is no scientific basis that any one particular food can stimulate intellectual growth. For years, there was a myth that fish and sweetbreads had special importance in the intellectual growth of man.

This has no scientific validity. Reading, studying and exposure to the arts and the humanities are responsible for intellectual development. My advice to you as a student is not to depend on any kind of cereal for this purpose.

My friend bought a book on dreams. Now all she does is interpret them for all the girls in our high school class. Sometimes she scares us terribly with her predictions. What answers can we give her?

Miss C.M., Tex.

Dear Miss M.:

Many universities in the United States and Europe have established sleep centers. By studying eye movements during sleep, the fact that a dream is in process can be determined.

But even these highly trained specialists do not engage in dream interpretation. They leave that to psychiatrists and psychoanalysts. To these experts, dreams represent uncovering of things that have happened in the past, rather than predictions of things that are to come in the future. You must discourage your friend from playing the game of dreams with her myths and superstitions.

Suffer In Secret

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — Pity the poor Secret Service agent, White House detail. If he doesn't know how to ski, how can he ever get a pay raise? If he does know how to ski, the old lady says to him, as he takes off for Vail, "Now don't you break your fool neck trying to keep up with Jerry. Why don't you ask for a transfer to Counterfeiting?"

Secret Service agents who were probably frightened to a cold sweat by the very sight of a horse, had to ride with LBJ — the John Wayne of the American Presidency. Agents with hernias were expected to play touch football with the Kennedys. Agents who would have much preferred being at a ball game or a bar were obliged to walk or ride countless miles of golf course fairways behind Ike. And listen to such complaints from the Leader of the Free World as "that darn 8-iron is letting me down."

Calvin Coolidge was said to have played little tricks on the Secret Service man who preceded him as he walked in the White House gardens. Cal would jump behind a tree now and then, just to scare the hell out of the agent when the agent turned around to see how his charge was doing.

One of the toughest jobs was that of the agent who was assigned to accompany Woodrow Wilson during his almost nightly visits to the Widow Galt, the President's betrothed. They walked. The President would go into Mrs. Galt's home and sometimes stay for hours. The agent would wait outside in fair or foul weather.

When the President emerged, the agent got in step with him and their march back to the White House began. It would be interrupted occasionally, the agent wrote in his memoirs, when Wilson would go into a little jig or entrechat and softly sing a few lines from "Oh, You Beautiful Doll, You Great Big Beautiful Doll."

At hand is another dispatch from a holiday visitor, our granddaughter Kelly:

(cq) "ABCDEFGHIJKLMNPOQRSTUVWXYZ. All those letters form the alphabet in the right order."

"I just told you that because on this typewriter of yours there's a funny form of letters that go like this — QWERTYUIOPASDFJKLZXCVBNM. So it is very hard to memorize. I'm just trying my hardest to memorize this."

"There are some numbers on this typewriter too. The numbers on this typewriter are 1234567890. Also on this typewriter are other things, for instance, '!' — '&' — '1/2' — '+'. I'll bet you couldn't memorize that."

"I like to make things like this:

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: While The Herald encourages open comments from its readers, the opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the management. Letters to the editor must be signed and should be of 300 words or less.

Dear Editor:

In a recent story the lives of a mother and her four children were snuffed out in daylight, by a murderer, the day after Christmas. As I read of how this person rode to work everyday with the husband of the murdered woman and only lived a short distance from their home, it literally made me sick to my stomach. Not only did this vulture kill all four children, he also raped the ten-year-old girl. The youngest child, a mere baby was in a diaper and T-shirt clutching two plastic roosters in his small hands.

I have three children, two daughters 13 and 10 and a baby 16 months. When I think of this happening to them I can't even cope with the idea.

When I read this article I had to pray for strength to be concerned about this man's soul. I hate his ways. In further thought, I began to wonder how such a menace to society could have developed. I feel that the laws we have up are partly to blame, and people vote for laws. We have our prisons so nice and comfortable any more that it's not a bad place to go to. They riot a little bit and the government is forced to give them their way.

The penalties have been lifted on rape so much that the rapist is back on the streets within months where he again does the same crime until at last he takes an innocent life. Also I feel that part of the blame goes to the producers of pornography and this type magazine as well as those who buy such trash. The theaters and TV producers that flash obscene movies on the screen are just as guilty, filling minds with filth. The drug pushers and users who want to take their minds on trips as well as those who numb their minds with alcoholic beverages can also fall under this category. I wonder if parents have ever listened to some of the words in the rock and roll songs their young people are consumed in day after day. Americans had better count the cost of their nonchalant attitudes of the above items. The things the human mind sees will influence their actions.

Our hearts are broken to think that such terrible things like this has happened in the land we love.

Sincerely,

REV. & MRS.

Business World

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — So fast is the recession overtaking the once extravagant economy that forecasters today are busily revising the projections they made only a matter of weeks ago.

The revisions come as the indicators of economic activity suggest that the recession will be deeper and more prolonged than many of them had anticipated.

Unemployment, for example, was foreseen by most economists as staying below 7 per cent at least until the end of 1974, but the biggest monthly increase in 14 years pushed it beyond that mark in December.

Factory output is sagging, loan delinquencies are rising, many blue chip stocks can't attract a glance and interest rates are falling — all indicative of an economy from which all forward momentum has drained away.

A vital characteristic of the economy's health is the mood of the people, and that mood is increasingly somber, as judged by the many surveys of consumer attitudes now circulating.

Some observers maintain that the wild expectations of some gold merchants were tamed by this mood, which consists of foreboding, fear, suspicion and a variety of other negative attitudes that foreclose new commitments.

At any rate, the public didn't buy gold, and neither are they buying automobiles. Car production fell 24 per cent to 7.34 million units in calendar 1974, and it isn't difficult to find forecasts of another 10 per cent drop in 1975.

In Washington, where a tax increase was talked about not many weeks ago, there seems to be a growing consensus for a tax cut instead, the theory being that a cut would stimulate more spending.

It was only six months ago or less that government, corporate and academic economists were wondering how in the world they could cut the extreme buying demands of the public.

Now, it appears, the public has provided the answer, and the economists now are wondering how in the world they can incite, provoke or encourage the public to embark on new spending ventures.

But with 6.5 million Americans out of work, almost everyone knows somebody who was cut and there is nothing more depressing to economic activity than that. Saving rather than spending becomes the goal.

The most optimistic view of things now is that a recession is also a renewal. It forces people to work harder, forego frivolous purchases and otherwise return to stable virtues.

On a corporate level it forces a weeding out of unhealthy practices. Efficiency improves and a greater premium is placed on innovation, which in a sense is a preparation for the next upturn.

City Council received a letter from the Federal Housing Administration stating that the FHA would not insure houses in the annexed area of Georgia Rd.

The FHA said that an examination of the road showed water areas on the north and south sections.

Bob Adkins, chairman of the planning committee, pointed out that the area met all other requirements of the FHA and that they would waive the storm sewer restriction if council would okay the area as such without storm sewers.

Except for a number of small findings and corrections in technical procedures, Pickaway County was given a clean bill of health in a routine examination conducted for the Ohio State Auditor.

Findings listed in the report ranged from 50 cents to $57.45. A total of $117.68 was figured due to the county and the county in turn was found obligated to individuals and firms to the extent of $14.99.

Variety Meat Flow Could Slow Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — Exports of variety meats, including beef tongues and pork livers, have grown steadily and have played an important but little-known role in the fortunes of livestock producers for many years, a report by the Agriculture Department indicated today.

But exports of those meats, also known in the trade as fancy meats and offal, could slow down this year because of cutbacks in hog and sheep slaughter, the report said. Restrictions in Europe, the biggest market, also could have an effect.

Further, meat supplies — including variety cuts — are up in all major meat-producing and importing countries, meaning there will be a stiffer competition for world markets, according to the report.

The report in "Foreign Agriculture," published by the department's Foreign Agricultural Service, was written by Arthur F. Haussmann, a livestock analyst in the agency.

"In calendar 1975, exportable supplies of U.S. variety meat are expected to be down slightly, with about 7 percent more beef offal, 13 percent less pork offal and smaller supplies of sheep offal," the report said.

U.S. variety meat exports in 1974 probably totaled around 300 million pounds, up from 281.9 million in calendar 1973 and the average annual shipments of 172.5 million pounds during the 1961-65 period, the official said.

Although exports represent only 9 to 11 percent of total U.S. variety meat production, the foreign demand has been a modest benefit to livestock producers. The reason is that while live cattle are sold primarily for their red meat value, their prices at the farm also include what meat packers expect to get for variety meats and byproducts.

Europe buys about three-fourths of the U.S. variety meat sold for export and France is the largest single-country purchaser, the report said.

Beef tongues are the most popular variety meat export item, accounting for about one-fifth of the U.S. world sales in 1973. Beef livers are second in demand, followed by pork livers. Those three products make up nearly three-fifths of the variety meat export volume, the report said.

No Talks Seen In Safety Dispute

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — No talks are scheduled until mid-week in the snagged negotiations between Cincinnati and its police and firemen.

Elmer Dunaway, president of the bargaining Fraternal Order of Police, was reportedly in Columbus Sunday meeting with state FOP leaders.

The 1,150 policemen received a vote of confidence Friday when firefighters voted to delay a decision on the city's 9.8 percent offer. Police are seeking a 12.2 percent hike, while firemen are asking for a 13 percent across-the-board boost.

The contracts of both groups expired Dec. 31.

Derby News

Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Rex Buller of near Derby on the birth of a daughter born Dec. 23 in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Mrs. Bertha McCann was preferred hostess at a Stanley party held at the Holiday Inn in Chillicothe on Dec. 17. Bernice Rawlinson, her Stanley dealer, was happy to present two gifts to Bertha for having the highest sales of the year.

Shirley Wardell also attended the party. She is Mrs. Rawlinson's preferred hostess for four Stanley parties in 1974.

On Dec. 16, Mrs. Naomi Tobin, Esther Lewis, Laura Lewis, Irene Wolf and Bertha McCann attended the Daughters of America pot-luck dinner and Christmas gift exchange party held at the home of Margaret Finch of Commercial Point.

On Dec. 18, Mrs. Minnie Ridgway and Mrs. Bertha McCann attended the Senior Citizens' party held at the home of Mrs. Mildred Junk in Mt. Sterling.

On New Year's Eve, the NPYS of the Southwest Community Church of The Nazarene sponsored a candlelight service followed by a New Year's Eve party.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Jenny on their new arrival, William Lee Jacob Jenny, born Dec. 6.

Recent visitors to the Southwest Community Church were Mr. and Mrs. Louie Bustle and daughter Beth. They will be in Costa Rica in January and will remain there through July for language study. From there they will go to the Dominican Republic to open new Nazarene work.

Food Aid Plan To Be Expanded

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another 156,800 needy women, infants and children in 30 states will be enrolled this year in a government food aid program to supplement their diets, the Agriculture Department says.

Announcing this Friday, Assistant Secretary Richard L. Feltner said the additions would bring to about 640,000 the number of persons enrolled in the $129-million program in 352 project areas.

The program now will operate in parts of 48 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, with North Dakota, Nebraska and Wyoming coming into the project for the first time this year. There are no participants in Virginia and Utah.

Sunshine Law Pushed For State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Opening meetings of the powerful Senate Rules Committee—a pledge of the new Senate majority leader—could trigger a broader move to put all of Ohio's governmental processes under closer public scrutiny.

Already there is talk that legislation will be introduced to provide the state with a so-called "sunshine" law requiring all, not just some, public business to be conducted in the open.

Present statutes permit governmental units, including committees of the legislature, to meet behind closed doors at the agreement of two-thirds of their members.

The Senate Rules Committee, to be headed by Democrats this year for the first time in 14 years, is the only legislative panel to persist with closed meetings.

However, at least some Democrats on the eight-member committee have helped in the effort to keep them closed.

Sen. Oliver Ocasek, D-27 Akron, the new majority leader, although a member of Rules previously, promised to seek to open meetings as one of his first priorities.

"They should be open. The public has a right to know what goes into the discussions as well as the decisions," he said.

At least one Republican senator, Thomas A. Van Meter, R-19 Ashland, shares that view. He attempted during the past session to secure passage of open meeting legislation but got no help from Republican Senate leaders.

A new member of the Senate, Democratic Sen-elect Robert Freeman, D-29 Canton, already has served notice he will propose a sunshine law—similar to a Florida statute—that would affect all governmental bodies—not just the legislature.

These would include boards of trustees of the various state universities—most of them well known for meeting in advance of announced sessions to thrash out controversies. They and other agencies have complied with existing law by conducting actual roll calls in public, thereby meeting the statutory requirement for business to be conducted in public.

Freeman, 52, a Stark County commissioner prior to his election to the Senate, said he would make introduction of his measure his first official act after coming to Columbus.

CINCINNATI — Hulen Kimmons, 50, of Cincinnati, from injuries suffered Friday night when struck by a car while crossing a Cincinnati street.

AKRON — Joe Hathaway, 26, of Akron, in a one-car accident on Interstate 76 near Tallmadge.

SATURDAY
VAN WERT — John McGinnis, 42, of Van Wert, in a one-car accident on Ohio 49 in Paulding County north of Van Wert.

FRIDAY NIGHT
CLEVELAND — Rupert H. Barker, 56, of University Heights, when struck by a car on Ohio 422 in Moreland Hills, near Cleveland.

NEW RICHMOND — Diane Kiskaden, 16, and Sharon Deaver, 17, both of New Richmond, in a two-car accident on U.S. 52 east of New Richmond.

MOUNT ORAB — Anna L. Brown, 26, and James and Lauri Brown, aged 3 and 6 respectively, all of Mount Orab, in a two-car accident on U.S. 68 in Brown County.

Clermont County Recount Ordered

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Clermont County Board of Elections must conduct a second recount of votes in the $735,000 Bethel schools bond issue that failed by one vote Nov. 5.

Clermont County Common Pleas Court Judge Louis J. Schwartz said Friday that the ballots rejected by the Datavote System computer must also be counted.

Former Laurelville Resident Dies In Florida

Harry Wharf, 86, died Sunday in a nursing home in Punta Gorda, Fla. where the family had moved several years ago. He was a retired carpenter. He and his wife, the former Fannie Burgoon, and their children lived in Laurelville for many years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Lo Weaver of Dayton, Mrs. Mildred Schroeder of Laurelville and Mrs. Myrtle Pamic of Punta Gorda, Fla.; one son, Cecil, also of Punta Gorda, Fla.; four grandchildren, Don Schroeder, Barbara and Joyce Weaver and Jerry Wharf; six great-grandchildren.

A brother Oscar who is 90 years old and one sister, Mrs. Golda Jones, also survive. Both live in Punta Gorda, Fla.

Funeral services and burial was held on Thursday in Punta Gorda. Mrs. Weaver and her husband Charlie and Mrs. Schroeder left on Monday

Charge Youth With Murder

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Gregory Jack Halderman, a former high school star in three sports, could become one of the first persons in Kentucky to face the mandatory death penalty.

The 19-year-old Independence man was charged Saturday with murder and first-degree robbery in the Friday holdup-slaying of Charles Cox, 14, police said.

Halderman was northern Kentucky's first suspect charged with murder under the state's new penal code.

Police said another teen-ager was being sought in connection with the shooting of Cox, who was slain by a shotgun blast during a drug store robbery.

Halderman played basketball, football and baseball at Covington Simon Kenton High School, where he was named the school's "most athletic" student.

morning to attend the services.

The Laurel Hills United Methodist Church held its annual Christmas program on Dec. 22 with the children's program being held during the morning services. Candlelight services were held in the evening.

Betsy Swepston served as director of both programs while the Rev. Betty Wintermute conducted the candlelight service. The processional youth pageant entitled "The Great Star" was impressively enacted in interludes with the choir renditions while Norwood Junks narrated the drama.

Phyllis Swackhammer, youth director, assisted by Betty Ebert, set Dec. 23 as the night for the Christmas caroling.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Poling were Saturday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid were Christmas Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fausnaugh and family and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper and family.

Harlan Stevens and Lena Sprouse from North Carolina were Friday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid.

The Luminaria that was the lighting of the Laurelville streets on Christmas evening was a very impressive scene. This symbolizes the bonfires that the shepherds built to light their way to Bethlehem on that first Christmas Eve. The lighting of the candles took place at 6 p.m. and the main square and business places were lighted. Christmas carols were to be sung by the village residents but due to the rain, the carols were cancelled. Those sponsoring the event were Damon Pontious and Chuck Zawachi.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan DeLong and son Brian entertained to Christmas Day dinner Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Poling, Michael Poling, Becky Fortner, Florence Stahr and Mary Frances Poling.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Wiggins and Joey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Karr and son Stacey, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Karr, Mrs. Lois Sweptson and daughter Lesley were Christmas Eve guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rooney and family of Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Downs of Circleville entertained to Sunday evening dinner Mr. and Mrs. Russell Good and daughter Jane Ann and Greg Fisher, all of Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Poling and son Michael and Miss Becky Fortner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reid, Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Tisdale and son Jeff were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thompson and family of Columbus.

Current Oscar Race Mostly Dull

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If the current Oscar race seems duller than usual, perhaps that's because 1974 was the Year of the Copycat.

The studios seemed to aim their big guns at repeating past successes. Big budgets were expended in an effort to match the disaster epics such as "Airport" and "The Poseidon Adventure." Alas, imitation rarely produces art. Although they are succeeding at the box office, "Airport 1975," "Earthquake" and "The Towering Inferno" are attracting no serious attention for the Academy Awards, except in special effects.

Likewise the impact on the awards by "Godfather Part II" is blunted because it is a sequel. Some critics have proclaimed it better than the original, but it lacks the startling newness and the performance of Marlon Brando.

Other Oscar hopefuls seem to have a derivative nature. "Lenny" borrows heavily from Orson Wells' classic "Citizen Kane." The marvelously funny "Young Frankenstein" is based on previous screen material, as are "The Front Page," "The Three Musketeers" and "The Great Gatsby."

All this doesn't mean that the Oscar race is any less spirited. The studios are now loading the guns of January, trying to win favor in the nominations.

$95 Billion For Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ford administration has given a tentative okay to a defense budget of some $95 billion for the fiscal year starting July 1, Pentagon sources say.

The proposed spending plan would compare with $83.6-billion approved by Congress for the current fiscal year. Defense officials have said the boost is needed simply to make up for an estimated $11 billion in lost purchasing power, due mainly to inflation.

The sources indicated Friday night that Defense Secretary James R. Schlesinger had been successful in rebuffing an effort by the Office of Management and Budget to trim the new budget to $92 billion.

Some sources cautioned that the $95-billion figure could still be changed before President Ford sends his proposed budget to Congress in late January or early February.

Among factors that could cause a change is the possibility that the administration will seek a tax cut as an antirecession weapon, the sources said.

due Feb. 24. The 3,000 Academy voters are invited to screenings here, there and everywhere. Trade papers bulge with ads. Usually reclusive stars turn up on television talk shows.

The awards season produces heartaches for studios like MGM and Columbia with no Oscar hopefuls. Also headaches for those studios with too many. For instance, Paramount must give equal treatment to "Chinatown," "Godfather Part II," "The Little Prince," "The Great Gatsby," "The Longest Yard," "The Conversation," "The Gambler" and "Murder on the Orient Express."

Not all are Oscar caliber, of course, but the makers and stars of the films need to be placated.

Eligibility for the 1974 awards is now closed, since potential nominees had to appear in a Los Angeles theater before Dec. 31. Here is how the race looks to this observer—selections are more or less in declining order:

Best picture—"The Godfather, Part II," "Lenny," "Chinatown," "Scenes from a Marriage," "The Conversation," "Murder on the Orient Express," "Young Frankenstein," "A Woman under the Influence," "The Parallax View," "The Longest Yard." Best actor — Dustin Hoffman, "Lenny"; Jack Nicholson, "Chinatown"; Gene Hackman, "The Conversation"; Art Carney, "Harry and Tonto"; Al Pacino, Robert Deniro, "Godfather Part II"; Walter Matthau, Jack Lemmon, "The Front Page"; James Caan, "The Gambler"; Erland Josephson, "Scenes from a Marriage."

Best actress — Liv Ullman, "Scenes from a Marriage"; Gena Rowlands, "A Woman under the Influence"; Faye Dunaway, "Chinatown"; Valerie Perrine, "Lenny"; Ellen Burstyn, "Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore"; Diahann Carroll, "Claudine"; Goldie Hawn, "Sugarland Express".

Jaycees Schedule Banquet

RAY MONSALVATGE

Ray Monsalvatge has been scheduled to be the guest speaker at the annual Circleville Jaycees Distinguished Service Awards Banquet Jan. 27, at the 4-H Grange Building.

Monsalvatge, a psychologist, is a graduate of Birmingham Southern College and Emory University. Born in Savannah, Ga., he speaks fluent Spanish.

Since leaving the Navy, Monsalvatge has missed only one speaking engagement. He speaks approximately 250 times a year and has appeared at 50 colleges and universities.

"I always tell the people to look for me because I'll be there on time," Monsalvatge said. "The only way I know to stay in business is to make a darn good speech everytime and be there to give it."

Tickets for the banquet may be purchased from any Jaycee or Brad Thompson, 986-3666 or Jim Reese, 474-7142.

Hear More Witnesses In Kidnap

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—The prosecution was expected to call more witnesses today to support its case against Clifford Kroger as Cincinnati's biggest kidnap trial in years headed into its second week.

Two persons already have tied Kroger to the Sept. 23 kidnaping of Allison Mechem, 4-year-old daughter of Charles Mechem, chairman of Taft Broadcasting Co.

Mechem identified Kroger's voice as that of a man who made ransom telephone calls.

Stephen Martin, 19, identified Kroger as the man he sold a 1963 model car a week before the kidnaping. Martin had earlier identified prison parolee Frank Wiechman as the man who purchased the car, which police say was used as the getaway car. Wiechman was initially charged with kidnaping, then the charges were dropped.

John Reusing, a bank manager, said he saw Kroger and a small girl get into a car about one hour after the abduction in suburban Mt. Lookout.

Kroger, who lives in Winter Park, Fla., formerly lived near the Mechem residence.

The Mechem girl was found unharmed a day later in a nearby motel. The requested ransom of $128,000 was never picked up.

Kroger contends he was several miles away at the time of the kidnaping. He and his attorney, Bernard Gilday, will attempt to prove he was at the same Norwood motel when the abduction occurred.

Kroger, a 38-year-old engineer, was arrested in Florida several days after the kidnaping by Cincinnati detectives.

Columbus Teachers On Strike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Pickets were reported at the city's 180 schools early today after members of the Columbus Education Association rejected the board of education's final offer.

Bob Mullins, a spokesman for the CEA, said early reports indicated some pickets at all the city's schools. He said the system's non-teaching employees, who were not on strike, "were giving as much support as possible."

Board members vowed to keep the city's schools open "if at all possible" and spokesmen for the striking teachers urged parents to keep their children home.

A majority of 3,000 teachers attending a mass meeting Sunday approved the strike, the first teacher walkout in the city's history, after voting down the school board's offer of a 4 per cent salary increase. The CEA is demanding a 12 per cent hike.

The CEA claims 78 per cent of the 5,000 teachers in the 100,000-pupil Columbus school system are association members.

Teachers attending the meeting rejected the board's offer by a 72 per cent margin and approved the strike by a 60 per cent majority. CEA President Ted Thomas predicted that "for every teacher who voted for the strike, two teachers will stay out."

School Supt. John Ellis said an effort would be made to keep schools open with substitute teachers, administrative and supervisory personnel and volunteers.

But he said the schools will be closed if it appears the system does not have the manpower to operate efficiently or the safety of the students and teachers cannot be guaranteed.

Thomas said parents should keep their children home because "competent certified staffs" will not be in the schools.

Ellis said there were no immediate plans to invoke the Ferguson Act, a state law which permits dismissal of striking public employees, although it was possible the district might seek an injunction against strikers.

But school board member Virginia Prentice said the Ferguson Act is an option the board has available to it and "I won't rule it out."

"It is harsh, it is sometimes unwieldy, but by the same token it is unlawful for a public person holding a public job in the public sector to strike and if we have to invoke the Ferguson Act, we do," Mrs. Prentice said.

Negotiators met Saturday in a last-ditch effort to reach a settlement, but federal mediator Joseph Santa-Emma said afterward the two sides remained "miles and miles apart."

The school board contends it does not have the funds to provide a larger salary increase. Teachers with BA degrees currently earn from $8,071 to a top scale of $13,979.

President Hears Hopeful Sermon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The sermon urged "dynamic faith and hope" and said "the future is not a stacked deck. The present mess is not our destiny."

Among those in church: President Ford, his wife Betty and his daughter Susan.

The President attended St. John's Episcopal Church across Lafayette Square from the White House Sunday. The Rev. David A. Williams, assistant minister, spoke of pain and suffering in the world and the need to respond to it.

It was the Fords' first weekend back at the White House after their skiing vacation in Vail, Colo. Aides said the President spent the rest of the day with his family and working.

You Are Cordially INVITED To Do All Your SAVING HERE! The SCIOTO BUILDING & LOAN CO. 157 W. Main St.

Ellis said even the 4 per cent hike would cost the school system about $2 million more than it is certain of receiving this year.

While the district expects some additional revenue, Ellis said the board couldn't meet the 12 per cent hike demanded by the teachers without risking financial chaos.

Thomas accused school officials of "playing a financial shell game with the public." He said the board could fund the increase sought by the CEA "without any major risk to the financial picture of the district."

"A careful analysis of the school board's budget shows that it consistently underestimates its income and overestimates its expenditures," Thomas said.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 4909.19 of the Revised Code of Ohio, The Dayton Power and Light Company hereby gives notice that on May 9, 1974, it filed with The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio an Application for authority to increase its rates and charges for electric service except as to consumers subject to Ordinance Rates in the process of elimination in the City of Troy. To make a revision to its rules and regulations for electric service and to withdraw its rate schedule.

The substance of the Application is as follows:

FUEL ADJUSTMENT CLAUSE

Present Fuel Adjustment Clause (as of May 9, 1974)

When the weighted average cost per one million Btu of fuel, consumed in the Company's electric generating facilities, during the calendar month immediately preceding the start of the billing month covered by the bill, decreases below or increases above $9.40 per one million Btu, there shall be a decrease or increase in the energy charges of .01032 per kilowatt-hour for each change in the cost of 1¢ per one million Btu, and proportionately for each fraction thereof.

The weighted average cost of fuel, as used above, shall be defined as the cost, including freight, of fuel on hand at the first of each month, plus the cost of fuel received during the month, divided by the total amount of fuel on hand and received.

Proposed Fuel Adjustment Clause

When the weighted average cost per one million Btu of fuel, consumed in the Company's electric generating facilities during the calendar month immediately preceding the start of the billing month covered by the service bill, decreases below or increases above $1.14¢ per one million Btu, there shall be a decrease or increase in the net energy charges of 0.01094¢ or a decrease or increase in the gross energy charges of 0.01149¢ per kilowatt-hour for each one cent (1¢) change in the cost per one million Btu, and proportionately for each fraction thereof.

The amount of the decrease or increase determined above shall be adjusted by the amount of any excise taxes saved or payable by the Company with respect to the amount of the decrease or increase so determined.

The consumer will be entitled to a prompt payment discount by payment of the net amount on or before 15 calendar days after rendition (mailing date) of the bill which reflects the application of this fuel adjustment clause, after which the gross amount shall be due and payable.

RESIDENCE RATES

It is proposed to eliminate the rate differential between consumers residing within and consumers residing outside of communities and to withdraw the Residence Rates now in effect and of elimination which contain a separate Water Heating Service Rate with the result that all residential consumers would be served under a single rate.

RESIDENCE RATE (COMMUNITY RATE)

Present Rate	Net	Gross
First 30 kilowatt-hours, or less, or none, per month	$2.10	$2.10
Next 70 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.036	.03780
Next 100 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.035	.03675
Next 550 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.029	.02945
Next 750 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.021	.02105
All over 1500 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.020	.02100

RESIDENCE RATE (ALL OTHER SERVICE AREA RATE)

Present Rate	Net	Gross
First 30 kilowatt-hours, or less, or none, per month	$2.50	$2.50
Next 70 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.042	.04410
Next 100 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.038	.03990
Next 550 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.029	.03045
Next 750 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.021	.02105
All over 1500 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.020	.02100

RESIDENCE RATE (ALL CONSUMERS)

Proposed Rate	Net	Gross
First 30 kilowatt-hours, or less, or none, per month	$3.00	$3.00
Next 170 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.045	.04725
Next 550 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.035	.03675
All over 750 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.025	.02625

It is proposed to increase the minimum monthly charge from $2.10 to $2.21 gross in the community rate and $2.50 in the all other service area rate. The proposed minimum monthly charge would not be subject to the provisions of the Fuel Adjustment Clause.

RESIDENCE RATES IN PROCESS OF ELIMINATION

The following Residence Rates now in the process of elimination would be withdrawn: Original Sheet No. 40 Original Sheet No. 41

These Rates provide for a separate Water Heating Service Rate which is applicable only to consumers who received service thereunder prior to October 26, 1973. Water heating consumers would be billed under the proposed Residence Rate applicable to all consumers.

GENERAL SERVICE RATE

Present Rate	Net	Gross
First 5 kw or less of Billing Demand	No	No
Next 3 kw of Billing Demand, per kw per month	$2.50	$2.50
Next 12 kw of Billing Demand, per kw per month	2.35	2.25
All over 20 kw of Billing Demand, per kw per month	2.15	1.40

ENERGY CHARGE

Present Rate	Net	Gross
First 30 kilowatt-hours, or less, or none, per month	$2.50	$2.50
Next 70 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.042	.04410
Next 500 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.038	.03990
Next 1,900 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.023	.02215
Next 2,500 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.022	.02195
Next 20,000 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.022	.02140
All over 25,000 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.022	.02185

ENERGY CHARGE-LOAD FACTOR PROVISION

All energy (i) in excess of 25,000 kWh and in excess of 500 hours use of the Billing Demand, or (ii) in excess of 225,000 kWh and in excess of 400 hours use, per kWh, $0.017 $0.017 $0.01785 $0.01785

It is proposed to increase the minimum monthly charge from $2.50 net and $2.625 gross to $3.00 net and $3.15 gross for single phase service and from $5.00 net and $5.25 gross to $6.00 net and $6.30 gross for three phase service. The proposed minimum monthly charge would not be subject to the provisions of the Fuel Adjustment Clause.

The terms of Primary Voltage Service under the General Service Rate would be revised as follows in order to transfer Large Power Rate consumers with demands of less than 1,000 kva to the General Service Rate.

Present Provision

PRIMARY VOLTAGE SERVICE: The above rates are based upon secondary voltage service (480 volts or less). When service is supplied to the Consumer and metered at a primary voltage (more than 480 volts), a discount of 2% of the total bill including fuel adjustment shall be allowed.

Proposed Provision

PRIMARY VOLTAGE SERVICE: The above rates are based upon secondary voltage (480 volts or less) service and metering. The following discounts will be applied to the total bill including fuel adjustment:

Service Voltage	Metering Voltage	Discount
Secondary	Primary	2%
Primary	Secondary	4%
Primary	Primary	6%

Service voltage is defined as the voltage existing at the point where the Company's ownership facilities ends and the Consumer's ownership of facilities begins. If more than one service voltage exists for a Consumer, the lowest such service voltage will be used in determining the above discounts.

It is further proposed to permit the fixing of the Billing Demand under the General Service Rate at 5 kw when the consumer's consumption does not exceed 1,500 kwh per month for three consecutive summer months.

LARGE POWER RATE

The present Rate is available to consumers having a monthly maximum demand of at least 500 kva, whereas the proposed rate would be available to consumers whose monthly maximum demand has exceeded 1,000 kva in each of the previous twelve (12) months. Those consumers with less than 1,000 kva who qualify for the present Rate would be transferred to the General Service Rate.

Present Rate

DEMAND CHARGE	Net	Gross
First 500 kva or less of Billing Demand, $600.00
All over 500 kva of Billing Demand, $1.20 per kva per month
First 125,000 kilowatt-hours per month, $0.0128 per kWh
Next 375,000 kilowatt-hours per month, $0.0127 per kWh
Next 1,000,000 kilowatt-hours per month, $0.0126 per kWh
Next 2,000,000 kilowatt-hours per month, $0.0123 per kWh
All over 3,500,000 kilowatt-hours per month, $0.0108 per kWh

ENERGY CHARGE-LOAD FACTOR PROVISION

All energy in excess of 300 times the kva of Billing Demand, $0.0100 per kWh

SECONDARY VOLTAGE SERVICE

When service is supplied and metered at secondary voltage (480 volts or less), the total bill, including fuel adjustment, will be increased by six percent (6%).

When Consumer is metered at primary voltage (more than 480 volts but less than 69,000 volts), but Company furnishes and maintains equipment necessary for the Consumer to receive and utilize the energy at secondary voltage (480 volts or less), the total bill, including fuel adjustment, will be increased by four percent (4%).

TRANSMISSION VOLTAGE SERVICE

When service is supplied and metered at transmission voltage (69,000 volts or higher), the total bill, including fuel adjustment, will be discounted by six percent (6%).

Proposed Rate

DEMAND CHARGE	Net	Gross
First 1,000 kva or less of Billing Demand	$1,300.00	$1,365.00
All over 1,000 kva of Billing Demand, per kva per month	1.30	1.365

ENERGY CHARGE

Present Rate	Net	Gross
First 125,000 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.002148	.00225540
Next 1,375,000 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.001974	.00207270
Next 2,000,000 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.001885	.00197925
All over 3,500,000 kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh	.001880	.00197400

ENERGY CHARGE-LOAD FACTOR PROVISION

All energy in excess of 300 times the kva Billing Demand, per kWh $0.01590 $0.0166950

PROMPT PAYMENT DISCOUNT

The Consumer will be entitled to a prompt payment discount by payment of the net amount on or before 15 calendar days after rendition (mailing date) of bill, after which the gross amount shall be due and payable.

THE DAYTON POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO FOR AN INCREASE IN ELECTRIC RATES

SECONDARY OR TRANSMISSION VOLTAGE SERVICE:

The above rates are based upon primary voltage (more than 480 volts, but less than 69,000 volts) service and metering. When the service voltage and/or metering voltage is at secondary voltage (480 volts or less) or at transmission voltage (69,000 volts or more), the following adjustments will be applied to the total bill including fuel adjustment:

Service Voltage	Metering Voltage	Adjustment
Secondary	Secondary	+6%
Primary	Primary	+4%
Primary	Secondary	+2%
Transmission	Primary	-4%
Transmission	Transmission	-6%

Service voltage is defined as the voltage existing at the point where the Company's ownership of facilities ends and the Consumer's ownership of facilities begins. If more than one service voltage exists for a Consumer, the lowest such service voltage will be used in determining the above discounts.

The minimum monthly charge would be increased from $600.00 to $1,300.00 net and $1,365.00 gross to correspond to the Demand Charge for the first 1,000 kva of Billing Demand and would not be subject to the provisions of the Fuel Adjustment Clause.

ELECTRIC MELTING FURNACE RATE

It is proposed that this rate be withdrawn and that the consumers previously served thereunder be transferred to the General Service Rate.

STREET RAILWAY RATE

Present Rate: All street-hrs per month, $0.021 net per kWh.

Proposed Rate: All kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh Net $0.030 Gross $0.0315. It is proposed to increase the minimum monthly charge from $1,200.00 to $1,800.00 net and $1,890.00 gross. The proposed minimum monthly charge would not be subject to the provisions of the Fuel Adjustment Clause.

It is proposed to add the Prompt Payment Discount provision to this Rate and to provide for metering on an alternating current basis rather than a direct current basis.

MUNICIPAL, EDUCATIONAL AND CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS RATE

Present Rate: $0.04 per kilowatt-hour per month.

Proposed Rate: All kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh Net $0.055 Gross $0.05775. It is proposed to increase the minimum monthly charge from $2.10 to $5.50 net and $5.78 gross. The proposed minimum monthly charge would not be subject to the provisions of the Fuel Adjustment Clause.

It is proposed to add the Prompt Payment Discount provision to this Rate.

SCHOOL RATE

It is proposed that this Rate be limited to consumers being served thereunder at the time of the Commission in this matter and that service for new consumers be rendered under the General Service Rate. In addition it is proposed to increase the rate levels and add the Prompt Payment Discount provision.

Present Rate

First Block of kWh per month: 400 kWh times number of classrooms: Over 6,000 kWh or less: $0.037 per kWh. Second Block of kWh per month: Next 100 kWh times number of classrooms: Balance of kWh per month: All kWh over 500 kWh times number of classrooms: $0.013 per kWh.

Proposed Rate

First Block of kWh per month: 400 kWh times number of classrooms: First 6,000 kWh or less, per kWh: Over 6,000 kWh, per kWh: Next 100 kWh times number of classrooms, per kWh: Balance of kWh per month: All kWh over 500 kWh times number of classrooms, per kWh: $0.021 $0.02205.

It is proposed to increase the minimum monthly charge from $2.10 to $3.00 net and $3.15 gross. The proposed minimum monthly charge would not be subject to the provisions of the Fuel Adjustment Clause.

TRAFFIC CONTROL SIGNAL RATE

Present Rate: $0.025 per kilowatt-hour per meter, per month.

Proposed Rate: All kilowatt-hours per month, per kWh Net $0.032 Gross $0.0336. It is proposed to add the Prompt Payment Discount provision and to increase the minimum monthly charge from $2.10 to $3.20 net and $3.36 gross. The proposed minimum monthly charge would not be subject to the provisions of the Fuel Adjustment Clause.

PRIVATE OUTDOOR LIGHTING SERVICE RATE

For each lamp with luminaire, controlled automatically, and where needed an upswep arm not over six (6) feet in length, where service is supplied from existing facilities of the Company: 2,500 Lumen (Nominal) Incandescent: $3.35 per month; 7,000 Lumen (Nominal) Fluorescent: $4.00 per month; 21,000 Lumen (Nominal) Mercury: $7.00 per month; 4,000 Lumen (Nominal) Post Top Mercury, including post for twelve (12) foot mounting height (Underground Only): $4.25 per month.

Additional poles shall be supplied for an additional charge of 75¢ per month for each standard wood pole or $2.00 per month for each ornamental pole. These poles shall be installed only on private property.

AERIAL SERVICE:

Secondary aerial spans shall be supplied, where necessary, for an additional charge of 25¢ per month per span.

UNDERGROUND SERVICE:

Underground service will be provided, where requested, for an additional charge of 25¢ per month per 100 trench feet or fraction thereof. The Consumer shall provide all trenching and backfilling to accommodate the Company's underground conductors according to Company specifications.

PAYMENT:

Bills for such service shall be due and payable within 15 calendar days after rendition (mailing date) of bill. Billing for such service is to be made a part of bill for other electric service.

Proposed Rate

For each lamp with luminaire, controlled automatically, and where needed an upswep arm not over six (6) feet in length, where service is supplied from existing facilities of the Company: 2,500 Lumen (Nominal) Incandescent: $3.70 per month; 7,000 Lumen (Nominal) Fluorescent: $4.40 per month; 21,000 Lumen (Nominal) Mercury: $7.70 per month; 4,000 Lumen (Nominal) Post Top Mercury, including post for twelve (12) foot mounting height (Underground Only): $4.70 per month.

Additional poles shall be supplied for an additional charge of 75¢ net or 78.75¢ gross per month for each standard wood pole or $2.00 net or $2.10 gross per month for each ornamental pole. These poles shall be installed only on private property.

AERIAL SERVICE:

Secondary aerial spans shall be supplied, where necessary, for an additional charge of 25¢ net or 26.25¢ gross per month per span.

UNDERGROUND SERVICE:

Underground service will be provided

Tigers Rip TV For 10th Victory

Teays Valley fought back from a second period, 11-point rally by Circleville, but couldn't counter from a nine-point spree in the middle of the third quarter that sparked the Tigers to an impressive 86-64 win Saturday night in the Mill St. gym.

It was the tenth straight win for the Tigers of Coach John Lawhorn, who are entering the second half of their schedule. Teays Valley, after an impressive start, dropped to 5-4 overall. Ironically, the Tigers started them on their losing ways with a 57-42 win at TV earlier in the year.

Circleville won every category except field goals made. Both teams tied on that count with 28 each, but the Tigers did it in 52 attempts for their usual 53.8 per cent. TV took a whopping 72 shots at the basket for a 38.8 average.

The winning margin, and the factor that contributed to the other statistical edges, came at the foul line where Circleville gained a 22-point advantage.

The Tigers canned 30 of 43 free throws as compared with eight of 10 by the Vikes. And they drew most of the fouls near the basket, gaining a 35-30 edge in rebounding.

Two of the four Tigers who scored in double figures, George Moore and Biff Bumgarner, scored more points at the foul line than did the entire Viking team.

Moore scored 21 points on five field goals and 11 of 14 free throws. Bumgarner hit for 16 points on two field goals and 12 of 15 free throws.

Harold "Willis" Reed was the star of the game for Circleville, hitting 11 of 13 from the floor and a foul shot for 23 points. His corner jumper kept the Tigers in the game early and he moved inside to work with Perry Hoskins for the final, winning rally.

Reed had seven rebounds for Circleville, Moore had nine, and Bumgarner got six.

Hoskins, credited with three big assists, managed 10 points, two at the foul line. Brent Mancini and Mike McCoy had six each, Brad Spangler had two, and Dan Marshall and Jeff Williams had a point each.

Terry Collins paced Teays Valley with 16 points. He hit seven from the floor and two at the foul line.

Kevin Pettibone scored 10, Chuck Glitt and George Spohn had nine each, Jeff Cauer and Bill Browning had six each, Dave Schiff scored five, Lee Stiles had two, and Dan Smoot hit for one.

Reed and Pettibone put on a scoring show in the first two minutes of the game as both teams used the run and shoot offense.

And that's pretty much the way the quarter stayed. Circleville led 20-16, even though Pettibone dropped in his eighth point of the game at the buzzer. The Tigers got their point margin at the foul-line, where Bumgarner hit four of four.

Moore scored on a Hoskins fast break to open the second period, but Collins countered with a tip-in for the Vikings.

But Circleville took control of the boards for the next four minutes and reeled off 11 straight points to give them a 33-18 lead with 3:19 until the half.

CHS got the advantage by limiting the Vikes to one shot in the spree by forcing the offense out. By contrast, Circleville's quick guards were able to penetrate the Viking defense for good shots.

TV coach Bob Hoover inserted big Jeff Cauer and George Spohn into the game and almost pulled it off.

Spohn broke the Vike dry spell with a free throw with 3:10 left. But, after missing the second of the one-and-one, Cauer tipped it in. Then Pettibone stole the ball, and was fouled.

This time, the Tigers were getting only one shot at the basket as the Vikes used a 1-3-1 to pull within seven, 38-31 at the half.

Both teams traded buckets to open the period before Glitt scored on a three-point play and Collins hit from the key with 5:23 left to pull TV to within two, 42-40.

But the Circleville seniors took over. Hoskins tallied on a drive, Reed converted a steal into a three-point play, Reed hit from the corner, and Hoskins knocked one in from the other corner to up the margin to 51-40.

And 29 points in the final period salted the game for Circleville.

Circleville will get a breather this weekend, not playing again until Tuesday, Jan. 14, when they travel to Washington C.H. to try and keep ahead of the South Central Ohio League. Circleville is 6-0 in the loop and holds a one-game edge over Greenfield.

Teays Valley will travel to West Jefferson Friday in Metro action. The Vikes, who have lost four of their last six games, are 4-2 in the loop for second place.

In the first 10 games of the year, Circleville has scored at a 71.6 clip while allowing its opponents only 53.7.

The Tigers are shooting 53.6 per cent from the floor, making 287 of 498 attempts.

Individually, George Moore is scoring 15.5 points a game, Reed is hitting for 15.4, Hoskins has 11.4, and Bumgarner has 10.2.

McCoy is averaging 6.9, Mancini 5.8, and Brad Spangler, 4.4.

SUMMARY

TEAYS VALLEY — Collins, 7-2-16; Stiles, 1-0-2; Browning, 3-0-6; Pettibone, 5-0-10; Glitt, 3-3-9; Smoot, 0-1-1; Schiff, 2-1-5; Cauer, 3-0-6; Spohn, 4-1-9. Totals, 28-9-64.

Michigan State Cage Hassle Reported

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Everything is supposed to be peaches and cream now with the Michigan State basketball team.

But it remains to be seen whether Spartan fans will consider 10 maverick players as bad apples who have spoiled the season.

The 10, suspended Saturday by Coach Gus Ganakas for walking out of a team meeting, were reinstated by him Sunday after a reconciliation meeting which included the players, coaches and university athletic officials.

John Hanna Fired As Crusaders Coach

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Hanna, a confused, disillusioned, but hopeful man, continues to return to the place where he believes he was slaughtered.

Hanna was fired as coach of the Cleveland Crusaders Friday night, but he was there on Saturday and Sunday to watch the team for which he had his first major league coaching assignment.

INSIDE FOR TWO—Harold "Willis" Reed (24) gets two of his 23 points in leading Circleville to a 86-64 win over Teays Valley Saturday night. Other Tigers in the picture are Biff Bumgarner (32), Perry Hoskins (14), Brent Mancini (20), and George Moore (40). Vikings are Kevin Pettibone (31), Chuck Glitt (13), Jeff Cauer, George Spohn, and Terry Collins (21).

Mustangs Coast To 54-46 Cage Win Saturday

Westfall upped its cage record Saturday to four wins and five losses overall and three wins and four losses in the Scioto Valley Conference Saturday with a 54-46 decision over visiting Huntington Twp.

The Mustangs were in front all the way, leading 10-4 at the end of the first period, 30-22 at halftime and 45-34 going into the final period.

With leads of 16 points in the third quarter and 14 in the fourth, coach Mike Eckle cleared his bench.

Playing his best overall game of the year, the Mustangs' junior guard Brad Beatty scored 20 points on six field goals and eight foul shots and was credited with three assists.

Chris Riddle also hit in double figures for the Mustangs netting six shots from the field and one at the charity stripe for a total of 13. He also pulled down nine rebounds and was given credit for two assists.

Rounding out the scoring for Westfall, Jeff Karshner and Kevin Reed scored six points each, Bill Hamman tallied four, Doug Williams three and Terry Hanson two.

The Mustangs outrebounded the visitors 50-35. Doug Williams was the game's leading rebounder, grabbing 13 missed shots off the boards. Karshner hauled in 10 rebounds, and Reed nine.

The Mustangs had 24 turnovers, most of them coming in the early part of the conference tilt and in the fourth quarter after Eckle had cleared the bench. The Huntsmen threw the ball away 30 times.

The Westfall reserves won, 42-28, and now have a 6-3 overall record.

Friday the Mustangs travel to Zane Trace and on Saturday they play at Amanda-Clearcreek.

Reserve Tigers Can TV

The reserve Tigers jumped their record to 7-3 on the year with 51-37 win over visiting Teays Valley Saturday night.

After leading 14-6 after the first period and 23-17 at the half, Circleville saw the Vikes close the gap to 33-31 going into the final period.

Rusty Holbrook took Circleville out of immediate danger with an inside score to start the period but Jeff Voss countered for the Vikes to make it 35-33 with 5:17 left.

A minute later, Voss was fouled going to the boards, but he missed both shots from the foul line and Circleville reeled off nine straight points to ice the win.

Frank Merrill scored 14 points to pace Circleville, Brian Fath had 10, Tom McGuire hit for eight, Tom Taylor had seven, Holbrook scored six, Mearle Logan scored four, and Eric Pontious hit for two.

Tim Tosca paced the Vikes with 14 points, Charles Morrison had 11, Mike Johnsen hit for 10, and Gregg Cline scored two.

The Vikes hit only seven of 21 foul shots, compared with seven of 15 for Circleville.

Circleville Wrestlers Drop Meet To Newark

Circleville's varsity wrestling team, hard-hit by the loss of 10 wrestlers to injury, sickness, and suspension lost to a good Newark team 45-15 Saturday.

Even though they lost, the Tiger wrestlers showed improvement all down the weight classes, according to Coach Brent Bell.

Bell was "very pleased" with Dan DeFrank, Tony Dray, Brett Christy, and John Payne for winning their matches.

Results of the meet were:

98-pound — Dan DeFrank (C) decided Wallace, 5-4;

105-pound — Todd Poff (N) pinned Mike Hamilton;

Heavy — forfeit.

Spirits Down Colonels; Win 109-106

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Kentucky Colonels took a 5 a.m. plane flight Sunday, then were shot down out of first place by the Spirits of St. Louis.

The Colonels got barely four hours sleep Saturday night before catching their early morning flight from San Antonio to St. Louis, where they dropped a 109-106 decision to the Spirits. Colonels Coach Hubie Brown was none too pleased by the odyssey.

"We don't want to blame it for losing," Brown said, "but I'm definitely going to make a complaint. We played in San Antonio last night (Saturday). By the time the guys ate, it was 12:30. We had to get up at 5 o'clock and catch a plane here.

"I can't believe the scheduling. Why did the game have to start at 1:30 anyway? Why couldn't it have been at 3:30? But they outplayed us — they outthusted us."

The loss knocked the Colonels from the top spot in the Eastern Division of the American Basketball Association. The New York Nets, who started the day one percentage point behind Kentucky, tripped Virginia 100-95 in another afternoon game to move into first.

In night action, the Indiana Pacers beat the Memphis Sounds 108-99, the Denver Nuggets tripped the Utah Stars 110-93 and the San Antonio Spurs defeated the San Diego Conquistadors 134-116.

Kentucky Rips LSU, 115-80

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

Dale Brown's Louisiana State basketball team lost a battle and eventually lost the war to Kentucky. But like Douglas MacArthur, he promises to return.

"There will be a day when I shall return with a team that will beat Kentucky in Lexington," the LSU coach said Saturday night after his troops were routed 115-80 by the Southeastern Conference's big guns.

To make the defeat more painful, Brown was unhappy with the officiating — so unhappy in fact that he threatened at one time during the bruising game to retreat to the locker rooms.

"It was an emotional bungle on my part," he said. "I just thought we were being physically manhandled out there. It's against SEC rules to say anything about the officials so I'm not going to break the rules..."

Brown particularly bristled over an altercation between his freshman scoring star Kenny Higgs and Kentucky's Mike Flynn. Higgs was ejected with 14:42 left in the game for a flagrant foul on Flynn.

"I'm not Higgs' guardian angel, nor his mother," snapped Brown. "But I felt he was done a tremendous injustice here tonight."

Elsewhere, top-ranked North Carolina State rebounded from a loss Friday night to whip No. 8 North Carolina 82-67 in a consolation game of the Big Four tournament in Greensboro, N.C. Wake Forest, the team that handed North Carolina State its first loss in 37 games, defeated Duke 75-71 to win the Big Four title.

Indiana, the nation's No. 2 team, hammered depleted Michigan State 107-55. The Spartans were forced to play with reserves when 10 of their players staged a dramatic walkout just before the game after a dispute with Coach Gus Ganakas.

In other games involving the ranked teams, No. 3 UCLA walloped Oklahoma 111-66; fifth-ranked Southern Cal defeated Furman 91-84; No. 6 Alabama crushed Vanderbilt 104-77; Maryland, No. 7, stopped No. 19 Notre Dame 90-82; 10th-ranked Oregon whipped No. 11 Providence 86-73; Princeton upset No. 12 Penn 50-49; No. 15 South Carolina defeated Manhattan 82-63; 17th-rated Michigan stopped Ohio State 85-73; No. 18 Purdue was upset by Minnesota 54-51 and No. 19 Memphis State downed Western Kentucky 79-72.

Kevin Grevey led five Kentucky players in double figures as the Wildcats easily beat Louisiana State. Grevey scored 20 points while Mike Phillips added 18, Rick Robey 15, Bob Guyette 14 and Mike Flynn 10.

Led by David Thompson's 26 points, North Carolina State defeated North Carolina. The Tar Heels took an early lead, lost it briefly, but the poised Wolfpack then took command behind their high-flying forward and never let go.

Skip Brown, the player who burned North Carolina State Friday night, scored 28 points to lead Wake Forest over Duke in the Big Four championship game.

Indiana toyed with Michigan State, whose lineup consisted of a bunch of junior varsity players. Ten black players walked out of a squad meeting before Saturday's game because they objected to the use of freshman Jeff Trof in the starting lineup. The team's other white varsity player, James Dudely, is sidelined with an injury.

"I don't think it's a racial thing," said Ganakas, admittedly mystified by the walkout. "It might have been caused by a lot of things, not one thing. I don't know."

Richard Washington scored 17 points and five of his teammates scored in double figures as UCLA beat Oklahoma. The Bruins gained their 10th straight victory of the season and 73rd in a row at Pauley Pavilion, a home court streak that stretches back to March of 1970.

Clint Chapman scored 22 points and Biff Burrell added 21 to lead Southern Cal past Furman. Furman's Rufus Mayes had 26 points to lead all scorers.

BGSU Turns Back Toledo

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A switch in defensive strategy keeps Bowling Green rolling along in the Mid-American Conference basketball lead.

"We pushed our defense out on the floor in the second half. That was the turning point," Coach Pat Haley said of his Falcons' 66-64 overtime verdict over visiting Toledo Saturday night.

Bowling Green's aggressive man-to-man foiled Toledo's offensive plans, wiping out a 51-40 Rockets' lead with 15 minutes to play.

Cornelius Cash was the hero in overtime, connecting for all but two of Bowling Green's eight points.

Jeff Montgomery's 20 points helped the Falcons push their Mid-American record to 3-0.

Toledo, led by Jim Kindle's 20 points, missed a chance to take over the league. Instead, the Rockets dropped to fifth place at 1-1.

Defending champion Ohio University and Miami of Ohio, meanwhile, served notice they will be title factors by winning their MAC openers.

Ohio cut down Kent State 68-53 behind Walter Luckett, with 27 points. Miami struggled from seven points behind at halftime to master Western Michigan 67-59.

Central Michigan, also 1-0 in the conference, went outside the league and whipped Western Illinois 89-82 for the best overall MAC record of 8-1.

In other nonconference tests, Eastern Michigan's balance mauled Wayne State 82-55, Bob Faulkner's three-point play with 13 seconds left gave Ball State a 72-71 decision over Slippery Rock and Northern Illinois whipped Chicago State 113-80.

Although a winner in his first Mid-American game, Ohio Coach Dale Bandy was far from happy.

"I was unhappy," Bandy said. "We had a chance to pull away and didn't. We almost let Kent get back in the game."

The loss also spoiled Rex Hughes' conference debut as Kent's coach. Hughes said, "My team won't play up to my expectations until we win. We turned it over too much."

Miami's pressing defense wiped out a 33-26 Western Michigan lead. "They panicked on it. And once we got the lead back, our zone kept them outside," said Redskins' mentor Darrell Hedrick.

"It would have been a disaster to lose at home in our first conference game," added Hedrick.

Jimmie Harvey of Western Michigan, with 19 points, took game scoring honors, one more than Miami's Chuck Goodyear.

In other Ohio college action, Ohio State opened Big Ten play at Michigan with an 85-73 setback and Marietta and Youngstown, the last of the state's unbeaten quintets, bowed for the first time.

Marietta took a 69-55 Ohio Conference welt at Wittenberg. Youngstown State, also 7-0 going into Saturday night play, fell at Nebraska-Omaha 100-97 in overtime.

Sophomore John Robinson hit 28 points, 14 in the first seven minutes, to pace Michigan past Ohio State. The Buckeyes, topped by Bill Andreas' 26 points, visit Michigan State tonight.

Brian Williams poured in 20 points and Steve Collier 19 as Cincinnati walloped Wabash 93-67. The Bearcats used a full court press to push their record to 6-4.

Xavier, trailing by 13 points, moved into a 58-58 tie before Chicago Loyola rallied in the last three minutes to win 67-62. Jerry Foley led Xavier, now 5-6.

Pepperdine nipped Dayton 80-79 in Los Angeles on guard Art Allen's 24-foot jumper as the buzzer sounded. Dayton's Johnny Davis scored a game-high 34 points in the losing effort.

Ball State And CMU Join Major Ranks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ball State and Central Michigan, new members of the Mid-American Conference, were designated major football schools Saturday by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The action moving Ball State and Central Michigan, plus three other schools, up from Division II to Division I, raises the number of major football schools to 133.

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Generous influences now stimulate your interests and leanings, and your personality should make itself felt in the right places. A day for advancement!

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Your intuition, foresight and reflexes should be at a peak now, but don't let periods of indifference or lethargy cause you to offset good influences.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Necessity being the mother of invention, you will probably be able to discover more than one novel method of meeting this day's obstacles. Others are competing for identical goals: Push on!

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Care needed in scientific and technical matters. If you step knowingly, however, you can net fine gains.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Carefully evaluate future moves and plans. Take action with the long-range view in mind, and take past experiences into consideration. What's expedient may not be the best course.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Recognize disturbing elements quickly. You are normally quite adept at this. Several propositions may be made to you. Accept only those which are truly worthwhile.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Don't become flustered over "cloudy" situations. Your fine intuition should tell you how to overcome. You can melt opposition with a sense of humor.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): Favorable planetary influences stimulate originality and some chancetaking — if REASONABLE! Don't go out on the proverbial limb and DO avoid extremism.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): You have a wonderful chance now to display your ingenuity and possibly think up a new way to present an old idea which could STILL be feasible if properly worked out.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Don't chafe at the bit nor hurry matters which need time to develop. Neither be too opinionative. Listen to the other fellow's views. He might "have something," as the saying goes.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): A good day for handling business transactions successfully and for gaining ground through some rarely used talent. Avoid a tendency toward procrastination, however.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Fine planetary configurations now stimulate your special gifts. Look beyond the immediate for true perspective. Intuition should be keen now.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with great versatility, ambition and love of knowledge. An intellectual by nature, you never stop developing this quality — that is, if developing on the higher plane. The Capricornian who does not live up to his potentials, however, can use his innate intelligence destructively, becoming a devious plotter and schemer — to the detriment of himself and those about him. Turn your fine traits to useful purpose and no one can be happier or more successful. Many writers, editors, lawyers and scientists have been Capricorn-born.

Views On Television

LOS ANGELES (AP) — As befits the new year, something new is happening on daytime television. "Another World," one of NBC's long-running soap operas, is expanding from 30 minutes to 60 minutes five days a week as of Jan. 6.

"It is the first major form change since 1956 in daytime," insists Lin Bolen, vice president of NBC's daytime programs. "In 1956 they went from 15-minute serials to half-hour serials." It's a gamble for the network. NBC is risking a 10-year hit on a theory that women will be willing to commit an hour of their afternoon to watch — and on the hope that the writers, actors and directors will be able to turn out five hours of material every week to keep the audience interested.

bolstered by the success of "Another World" and other serials over the past year, NBC serials and believes CBS Ms. Bolen is confident the format can work. "I believe that the daytime audience has become so sophisticated because of all the longform (television) they've seen at nighttime, debuting this week on NBC — that to ask them to commit 'Blank Check' and 'Wheel for an hour is really not of Fortune." Three games asking very much," says Ms. Bolen, as she prefers to be called. "Winning Streak."

What is it about an hour serial that appeals to her? ABC has already canceled The 33-year-old network "The Newlywed Game" and executive explains: "The Girl in My Life" and re- "What we will be able to do placed them with 'The Big on 'Another World' is play out Showdown" and "The Money some of those scenes which Maze." an audience assumes take The CBS daytime lineup replace off camera. words, our scenes will be longer; we can play a 12-minute scene and bridge the other networks' station breaks. We will be able to do a great deal more dramatic material. We will be able to tell better stories."

She hopes they will, anyway. She's hedging her bet just in case. "Another World" will air at the end of the network's daytime lineup — 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. in most areas.

"So if it doesn't make it," says Ms. Bolen, "it won't hurt us. We can always cut back to 30 minutes and it doesn't hurt anything. If we started at the top of the schedule, it could destroy the lead-in to some other very successful programs."

If "Another World" does succeed in its new hour special hour-long episodes of format. She was unhurt.

7 California Officials Gain Both Pension And Salary

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Seven county officials in California have found a way to beat the soaring cost of living. They collect a salary and a pension for the same government job.

By retiring from office for only a few days, the seven — including five sheriffs — have taken advantage of a loophole in state law. They are now eligible for two checks a month.

All seven left office Dec. 31 after up to 32 years service. They begin new elected terms in the same offices today and will begin to receive both pension

Gas Cutback Hearing Set In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Public Utilities Commission of Ohio hearing to review an East Ohio Gas Co. proposal to cut natural gas supplies to industrial users by 18 per cent was to begin today.

The hearing, expected to last most of the week, also will consider similar cutback proposals made by the River Gas Co. and West Ohio Gas Co.

East Ohio said the cutbacks, set to begin Feb. 1, were necessary because of the inability of its suppliers to deliver all the natural gas the company needs for customers in the Akron, Cleveland, Warren, Youngstown and Ashtabula areas.

The company also announced it would not accept any new residential customers after March 1.

The proposed cutbacks are being questioned by labor groups and some municipalities.

Akron Public Utilities Director Roy Ray said the PUCO should make sure the cutbacks are not a ploy to put pressure behind the industry's effort to eliminate federal regulation of natural gas prices.

Last year East Ohio sold about 400 billion cubic feet of natural gas, about 150 billion cubic feet of which was burned by industrial customers. The company says its shortage this year will be about 28 billion cubic feet.

Pollution Claim Aired

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Some 14.6 million gallons of industrial waste were poured into the Detroit River last month by Great Lakes Steel Co. in violation of a pollution permit, a Detroit newspaper charged today.

The Detroit Free Press said the waste, from the firm's blast furnace complex on Zug Island, contained 28 times the amount of solid waste matter allowed under terms of a permit from the state Department of Natural Resources.

And, the newspaper charged the incident was the second in three months in which millions of gallons of untreated wastewater have been dumped into the river by the firm.

Officers of the company, the state's second-largest steel producer, have been told to appear before the state Water Resources Commission later this month to explain the incidents.

There was no comment from the firm.

Westmoreland Suffers Attack

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland, retired Army chief of staff, is reported resting comfortably while recovering from a mild heart attack.

Westmoreland, who commanded U.S. forces in Vietnam, entered Eisenhower Medical Center Friday with a diagnosis of a mild heart attack.

College Teachers May Trade Jobs

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Ohio college teachers tired of their jobs are being invited to trade positions with their colleagues rather than brave the diminishing job market.

The program may be the first being tried on a statewide basis and has won the blessing—and a $7,000 grant—from the Ohio Board of Regents.

"We have faculty who for years have taught the same or similar courses in the same rooms with the same maps on the walls," says Miami University President Phillip Shriver.

"Because there was such tremendous growth in the '60s, if they became jaded or frustrated they moved on to another job. Today (due to the business recession) that opportunity doesn't exist," Shriver says.

About 50 Ohio teachers have applied for the program, which is operated by the Ohio College Association, which Shriver heads.

Shriver says Miami teachers have been trading places with teachers at other colleges and universities for about two years. "They come back refreshed and exhilarated," he says.

One of the program's disadvantages, recognized by Shriver, the Regents and the teachers, is housing.

The Ohio College Association suggests faculty who trade jobs for a year or more be paid by their own institutions and even trade housing. In most cases, faculty would be encouraged to trade similar jobs but sometimes schools might swap specialists in different fields to expand teaching experiences of the faculty while sharing resources.

Norman Gillmore, an engineering teacher at Lorain County Community College, says he'd like to try the program, especially if he could find a place within commuting distance of his Elyria home.

"I have mixed emotions from that standpoint (travel), but the input and insights you get should be well worth the effort," he says.

W. J. Burns, executive director of the Cleveland Commission on Higher Education, injects a cautionary note.

"In terms of geographical distances, it would be easier (to commute)," says Burns. "But we're hoping to develop options for people to get into other areas. A freshness comes with a new geographic location, and sometimes Cleveland needs to think about developing styles and programs that are going on in other parts of the state."

Commodities Drained Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's once-bulging reserve of farm commodities continues to be drained off, according to the Agriculture Department's latest report on inventories.

As of last Nov. 30, the department's Commodity Credit Corporation held only 18.3 million bushels of oats valued at $11.7 million which have not been committed for sale or use. There was no corn, sorghum, barley, rye, wheat or rice in the uncommitted inventory.

A year earlier, the uncommitted reserve of government-owned stocks — a barebones amount then by historical standards — included 31.3 million bushels of oats worth $20 million and lesser amounts of other feed grains as well as 4.8 million bushels of wheat value at $6.5 million.

The big drain on government-owned commodities began in mid-1972 with a huge increase in U.S. exports.

Government-owned stockpiles of farm commodities grew to immense proportions in the late 1950s and early 1960s because of surplus production. In 1959, for example, USDA owned $6.4 billion in farm surpluses, including 1.1 billion bushels of wheat, 1.2 billion bushels of corn, and nearly 7.6 million bales of cotton.

By The Associated Press
A winter storm moving from the Northern Plains states is expected to bring rain to Ohio Tuesday, with continued moderate temperatures and brisk southerly winds.

A weak disturbance moving out of the mid-Mississippi Valley this morning and into Lake Michigan by tonight is expected to spread a heavy blanket of clouds across the state today. Some scattered rain showers or snow showers will fall in the northern counties, while only rain will fall over the central counties.

Afternoon readings were to range from the upper 30s in the northwest to the 40s over the rest of the state. Some lower 50s may be reported from the upper Ohio Valley regions.

Lows tonight are expected to change little from this morning and lower into the 20s and lower 30s under partly cloudy skies. Light southerly winds kept readings in the 20s and 30s this morning under clear skies.

Campus Notes

Among the list of graduates receiving their degrees from the Ohio State University on Dec. 13 were six students from Pickaway County. The following students from this area received the degrees indicated:

Daniel Alan Chrismer, Route 1, Ashville, bachelor of arts; Coyt Carroll Jr., 522 Tower Court, master of music; Stephen Lee Bower, Route 1, bachelor of science in agriculture; Hurley Ray Taylor, 1995 Arapaho Drive, bachelor of science in natural resources; Dennis Michael Melson, 134 Villa Drive, bachelor of arts; Steven Patrick Monett, Route 2, Orient, bachelor of science in electrical engineering.

Three Circleville High School graduates were named to the Dean's List for the fall semester at Marietta College.

They are Thomas Bowers, 921 Circle Drive, senior, a 1971 graduate of CHS; Cathy J. Thompson, 335 E. Main St., sophomore, 1973 CHS graduate; Carole A. Wylie, 369 Markley Drive, senior, graduated from CHS in 1971.

Miss Wylie and Miss Thompson were both honored by having perfect grade point averages of 4.0.

Karen Lynne Maxson, a senior at Capital University, was named to the Dean's List for the fall semester. Miss Maxson is majoring in elementary education and received a perfect 4.0 grade point average on the traditional 4.0 scale.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Maxson, Route 1, Kingston.

Receiving a bachelor of fine arts degree during the Dec. 13 commencement ceremonies at Ohio State University was Norman Burmaster. Burmaster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Burmaster, 280 Sherwood Drive.

During his college career, the graduate was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He majored in graphic arts.

Grange News

PICKAWAY GRANGE YOUTH

Youth from four of the subordinate granges in Pickaway County attended the monthly meeting of the Grange Youth Organization held last night at the home of Barbara McKenzie.

The meeting opened with devotions by the hostess and was followed by reports of the secretary and treasurer. Youth directors, Bob and Diana Lands, and Paul Dunkle, reported on the most successful youth conference held in December.

The members voted to sponsor couples to the annual Ohio State Grange Young Marrieds Conference in 1975. The group also voted to donate prizes to the winners in the youth baking and sewing contest to be held at the February 1 meeting of the Pomona Grange.

Elaine Pfeiffer was welcomed as a new member of the grange youth representing Scioto Grange.

Plans discussed for 1975 were the banner competition, the spring banquet to be held on April 5, youth camp and programs for the local granges.

Members will present a program for Scioto Grange on January 16 and will be guests at the Washington Grange meeting in February. This program will be arranged by the recreation committee headed by Barbara McKenzie.

The February meeting of the grange youth will be held at the home of Karen Ewing 7 p.m. Feb. 2.

Arrests

PATROL

Charles L. Sahr, 19, Columbus, driving while intoxicated.

Thelma Riley, 31, Indio, Calif., menacing threats.

Columbus Everett Wright, 51, Columbus, driving while license under suspension.

Rosemary Wilson, 31, Chillicothe, disorderly conduct, tampering with motor vehicle.

Robert Clark, 23, 2005 Sioux Dr., driving while intoxicated.

Architect Jackson sometimes got a little careless in his work. He placed part of one house on the wrong lot. In another house, sections of the foundation were left out. A third house went up without a building permit.

When Jackson's disgruntled clients finally complained to the state's architectural board, his license was revoked. Although he took the matter to court, the action of the board was upheld. The court said there were ample grounds for concluding that Jackson was incompetent.

Most states have set up some sort of agency to oversee the practice of architecture. Among its other powers, such an agency usually has the authority to suspend or revoke the license of an architect who fails to maintain a suitable level of competence.

Dishonesty, too, may lead to disciplinary measures. Another architect was accused of involvement in a scheme to bribe a city official. This was enough reason, a court ruled afterward, to justify a suspension of his license.

Nevertheless, the courts acknowledge that penalties of this kind should not be imposed lightly. In another case, there was no question that a certain house had been erected with specifications reduced to a dubious minimum.

But at a hearing, it became impossible to sort out which shortcuts were the fault of the architect and which were due to the owner's insistence on saving money.

Under these ambiguous circumstances, a court ruled that the board had no sufficient basis for suspending the architect's license.

The court said: "The right to practice his profession is highly valuable, and he (may) insist upon (better) proof before this right can be taken away."

Warp's FLEX-O-GLASS
Crystal-Clear, Flexible Plastic

Holds In Heat — Keeps Out Cold

Tests prove that you can cut winter fuel bills up to 40% by covering your windows and doors with Warp's Flex-O-Glass.

Windows lose more heat than anywhere else in the house. A 1/8" crack around a loose-fitting window lets in as much cold as a 5" hole in the glass. Stop this costly heat loss! Tack genuine Warp's Flex-O-Glass over your screens and turn them into winter-tight storm windows and doors. Winterproof your porch and breezeway, too.

YOUR FOOD COST

WE'RE WORKING TO BRING YOU LOWER PRICES!

This little talk is important to you because it involves your weekly food bill. If you're like most people, you spend more on food today than perhaps any other single item. With inflation still running high, your job of trying to get the most for your money — value for each dollar wherever you shop — becomes more difficult everyday.

Today, at Kroger, we're totally committed to work to bring you lower prices in 1975. Currently, we're on a PRICE FREEZE of over 1,100 items most homemakers use and need weekly. These items are our own first quality house brands as well as many of the major national brands. Also, our recent price checks, plus one by an independent source show clearly that Kroger overall everyday storewide prices are the best in the market. In fact, we invite you to compare our prices with a small adding device we call the "MINI-MIZER."

We're also finding other methods to keep food prices down. All our truck schedules have been revised to be more direct to stores to conserve fuel and save money. We've reduced lighting by 1/3 and turned temperatures down in our office and stores to again conserve fuel and reduce costs.

It's our pledge to you, we'll be working to bring you lower prices in 1975.

KEEP YOURS ON!

Kroger is leading the way to conserve vital energy by reducing the amount of electric our stores use. Beginning today, we're on a conservation program we hope will reduce electricity a full 1/3 without any disadvantage to our customers. Also, this type of savings will allow us to maintain lower prices. When you notice a few digits out at Kroger you'll know we're trying to do our part to save fuel and whip inflation. Now!
